The members of Lake Shore Dance's company are in their last few weeks of preparation of "The Nutcracker." Tickets are now on sale for the shows at Port Washington High School on December 4th and 5th!

Last month we learned about Clara and the beautiful Nutcracker that she received for Christmas from Herr Droselmeyer. We also learned that two clowns from his workshop came and broke her Nutcracker! What happens next? Clara runs over to the broken doll and takes it to Droselmeyer, who quickly fixes it for her. She is overjoyed and beams when she sees the doll put together again! However, it is getting quite late and the guests must start heading home from the party. Once the guests leave, Clara takes her Nutcracker and cuddles up in the ballroom on a sofa, only to be awakened by life sized rats- yikes! There is even a large rat king! But have no fear, her Nutcracker doll turns into a life- sized Nutcracker Prince who battles the rats with his army! Who wins? What happens to Clara? Check out next month's newsletter to find out.

This year we are pleased to have two guest artists in our show, Carrie Martin and Arturo German Hernandez De Le Mesa who will play the prince! We'll have his Bio in our December news.

Carrie Martin is excited to perform as a guest artist in the role of Sugar Plum. She has been dancing at Lake Shore Dance since the age of five and graduated from our program last year. Throughout her many years with Lake Shore Dance, she participated in both company and on our competition teams. She was pleasantly surprised to win the title of 1st Overall Solo (Ages 13+) at the DanceXplosion Competition in Illinois last year! She is now a freshman at UW-Milwaukee where she is majoring in dance. She was placed in the highest level ballet class available to freshman and she credits her training to her teachers at Lake Shore Dance. She thanks them for making her a diverse dancer and for giving her experience in many different areas of dance! Miss Carrie has been teaching at Lake Shore Dance for the past few years and loves sharing her passion for dancing with her students! She hopes you will enjoy the show!
